Graduate Credit Workshop for Participants in the 2007 Model Schools Conference

EDU 548L Implementing Successful Practices

The International Center for Leadership in Education, in conjunction with the University of Sioux Falls, is pleased to offer a three semester credit-hour graduate workshop based on the 2007 Model Schools Conference.

Course Requirements at a Glance

- ◆ Read a series of publications, which will be shared at the Conference
- ◆ Read about and attend 10 presentations at the Conference
- ◆ Attend at least two of three special Graduate Workshop sessions at the Conference, led by qualified adjunct faculty
- ◆ Write an action plan (8-12 pages) for school reform that describes:
 - local challenges that must be overcome to improve achievement for all students
 - identify and plan school or classroom successful practices to be implemented

The cost of the workshop is $395, which includes all publications as well as special Graduate Workshop Sessions and all transcript/registration fees.

To receive three semester hours of graduate credit:

1. Send in the enclosed registration form with payment by check, purchase order or credit card for $395, payable to the International Center for Leadership in Education
2. Complete the readings (publications will be reviewed at the Conference)
3. Attend Conference sessions and Graduate Workshop sessions as specified above
4. Mail action plan to the International Center by July 31

An official transcript will be issued by the University of Sioux Falls.

Deadline for registration and payment — Sunday, July 1
