

Parent Involvement Action Packets for K-12 Schools

The No Child Left Behind (NCLB) legislation spells out the requirements for involving parents in the education of their children. Parent Involvement Action Packets for K-12 Schools is designed to help school teams easily implement strategies and events that encourage parent involvement in the school. It contains 20 complete packets for involving parents. Each packet has the following elements:

- Event description and directions
- Planning calendar, task list, and agenda
- Flyers and reminders to advertise the event
- Sign-in sheet and attendance certificate
- Evaluation form (can be used by Title I schools to comply with giving parents a voice in events)
- Data collection sheet

All forms are on the enclosed CD so that they can be personalized by the school and duplicated.

The kit, written by Charles Amodeo and Suomi Erin Amodeo, also:

- describes how to build a parent-friendly school environment
- provides home-focused activities that benefit student learning at school
- outlines the importance of using surveys to gauge parents' concerns and to connect them to the education process
